

BREAKING NEWS — Late yesterday, the Florida House Commerce Committee voted to amend House Bill 3 to remove language that threatened to repeal local LGBTQ nondiscrimination ordinances and “conversion therapy” bans. You made this possible, Robyn — your emails, phone calls, and tweets to legislators made all the difference!

But...

The threat of a sweeping preemption bill that could repeal every local LGBTQ rights law in Florida still remains in the Senate companion bill to HB 3 — SB 1748. Rush an email to Senate President Bill Galvano and tell the Florida Senate discrimination has no place in our state!
