Girl Finds “Transgender” Boy Staring at Her in Locker Room — Told to Go OUTSIDE Until He Was Done

Written by Selwyn Duke

Proving again that “the eye altering alters all,” a Pennsylvania high-school girl recently found a boy’s lustful eye fixed upon her in her locker room — then was told her only recourse was to wait outside until he was done changing.

Of course, at issue is changing school policy that allows a boy who changes his so-called “gender identity” and claims girlhood status to use the girls’ facilities. As the Family Research Council reports:

There are at least 787 students at Pennsylvania’s Honesdale High — but only one of them seemed to know about a major change in the school’s rules. The others found out the most traumatic way possible: when they walked into the girls’ locker room and found a teenage boy in women’s underwear.

For at least one 15-year-old sophomore, the situation was terrifying. “It was first period,” she remembers, “and I had gym class. And I walked in [to change] with all my friends, and while I was putting on my pants, I heard a man’s voice. So I turned around, and he’s standing there on the opposite aisle looking at me. I glanced down, and I could tell that he was wearing women’s underwear and what was underneath it.” When the boy stared back at her — and the entire group of partially-dressed girls — she was horrified.

When she got home that afternoon, she told her mom and dad what happened. Turns out, the students weren’t the only ones who’d never been notified about the policy. Still in shock, they called the principal and Wayne County superintendent. Neither were particularly sorry about the girls’ experience. And to prove it, they refused to lift a finger to help. The girls’ only option was to wait outside the locker room — a place designated for them — until the boy inside was finished.

The girl’s family has since obtained legal representation and has filed a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education’s Civil Rights Division. Her lawyers have also “posted a video online along with their complaint alleging the school’s policy on transgender use of locker rooms violated the girl’s civil rights,” informs WNEP.com.

“Opening up restrooms and locker rooms to members of the opposite sex is sexual harassment. Like most forms, the girls have little power over their situation,” said attorney Andrea Shaw,” WNEP further informs.

“The Wayne Highlands superintendent says he’s not able to comment on this incident or complaint but does say the district’s policy is in keeping with a recent court decision allowing trans students to use the facilities of their choosing. Now, the Supreme Court is expected to take up that case,” the site continues.

It should first be said here that there’s no such thing as a “transgender” student, not any more than there could be a “transpecies” student who’d really become a cat (and there is a woman who thus masqueraded, by the way). As Australian Alan Finch, who’d once claimed trans status, put it in 2004, “You fundamentally can’t change sex.... Transsexualism was invented by psychiatrists.”

Weighing in likewise just last year was philosopher Dr. Ryan T. Anderson, who wrote that “transgenderism” is delusion and just amounts to playing “pretend,” since sex change is biologically impossible. As I reported at the time:

“Modern science shows that our sexual organization begins with our DNA and development in the womb, and that sex differences manifest themselves in many bodily systems and organs, all the way down to the molecular level,” writes Anderson in his March 5 article, which was adapted from his new book, When Harry Became Sally: Responding to the Transgender Moment.

“Cosmetic surgery and cross-sex hormones can’t change us into the opposite sex,” Anderson, a Heritage Foundation senior fellow, further explains. “They can affect appearances. They can stunt or damage some outward expressions of our reproductive organization. But they can’t transform it. They can’t turn us from one sex into the other.” They merely amount to the donning of “counterfeit sexual garb,” as Johns Hopkins University (JHU) psychiatrist Dr. Paul McHugh put it.

But what of the “transgender” diagnosis? It is made by actual people of medical science, but there’s nothing scientific about it.

Note that when a doctor diagnoses someone with “gender dysphoria” — the persistent sense that you’re a member of the opposite sex but are stuck in the wrong body — there’s no way for him to determine that at issue is a biological phenomenon as opposed to a psychological one. There is no brain-scan; genetic test; blood, urine or any other body-chemistry test for “biologically induced gender dysphoria.” The physician will make his diagnosis based only on feelings — strong feelings of “cross-gender identification” lasting for at least six months. On this basis alone he may ultimately recommend the patient undergo body-rending sex-mutilation surgery.

It’s as if you went to a cardiologist and said, “Doc, I’m certain I have heart disease! I can just feel it!” and he replied, without performing any diagnostic tests, “Oh, have the feelings been strong and persistent? Have they lasted for at least six months? Alright, then, I’ll cut open your chest and perform a bypass!”

So while Professor Harold “Hal” Lewis said in 2016 that “the global warming scam” is the world’s “greatest and most successful pseudoscientific fraud,” the “transgender” scam may soon contend for that title.

This Made-up Sexual Status (MUSS) agenda’s unscientific nature raises another issue: Why are the feelings of a majority of people — e.g., the high-school students uncomfortable with having opposite-sex classmates invade their spaces — subordinated to the feelings of less than one percent of the population?

Answer: Because the feelings-based prejudices of pseudo-intellectual pseudo-elites are holding sway.

Meanwhile, Democrat-sponsored House bill “the Equality Act” would force even churches to allow faux (same-sex) weddings and MUSS people to use the opposite-sex’s facilities, according to WND.com, and a British Catholic mother is being investigated by police for “misgendering” a MUSS individual.

So what’s really going on here? At bottom, this has nothing to do with compassion, equality, legitimate tolerance, or inclusiveness. Moreover, the problem with it isn’t mainly, as conservatives aver, that predators will use a MUSS ruse to access women’s private spaces (though this is an issue).

Rather, “This is about socially reengineering society — about changing hearts and minds — by legitimizing made-up sexual statuses,” as I wrote in 2016.

This is the real cause of the Bathroom Wars. It’s also why traditionalists shouldn’t budge an inch on this issue. If you can make people believe an objective reality such as sex is mere illusion, you can make them believe anything.

Dear God,

What a stain on our human history! Forgive us. Help us.

The girls really ought to beat that sissy to a pulp and then drag his panzyass out on to the gym floor and dump his bloody limp body at center court, sending a message to any other attention seeking perverts.

Norge4Nordmenn ModMon2.0 • 2 hours ago

And that, ladies and gentlemen, is how to solve this problem once and for all.

Since Gender identity refers to a person's internal sense of being: male, or female, it should never be applicable when it comes to restroom or locker room facilities. The most logical approach is to assign bathrooms based on Chromosome. XX, XY. Chromosomes cannot be changed with sex reassignment surgery.

cslamer Frank Martinelli • 3 hours ago

The most outspoken critic on this issue was and still is that tennis gay woman martina natolova (forgive spelling please) who was a sweet hero darling of the left until SHE came out and said that the whole "trans" issue has ruined women's sports and advocates for the Olympics as well as any professional women's competition to use the XX-XY signature as the only requirement needed to perform in the sporting events no matter how you "identify".

So far she has been cast out of the protected identity enclaves and warned to shut up but she is ignoring the haters....for now.

I think this issue will finally come to a head in full-contact sports like the MMA.

Can you just imagine what will happen when a tranny beats the living snot out of a natural born woman for "entertainment" value? It might go over well in muslim countries but not so much in the bible belt of Amerikka!

Charlie cslamer • an hour ago

Already happened: <https://thelibertarianrepub...>

Cranford Ducain cslamer • an hour ago

You do know this is the reason the "original" Olympic Games were held in the nude. It was keep women from participating in a man's event. Actually they were ALL men's events, but the reason was the same. This might even become a good reason to return to those rules. Plus the increase in entertainment value.

Patricia Julian Frank Martinelli • 10 hours ago

Problem is all those XY AIS girls born with female genitalia a vagina between their legs would have to then use the boys locker/changing rooms based on their chromosomes!!! XY AIS females can actually be more feminine in appearance to XX Females!!

CovfefeMe Patricia Julian • 4 hours ago

if they've had the full surgical change, the fine. This boy did not. So he's still anatomically a boy and must use the boy's locker room. Or a phone booth.

Allowing boys/men into the girls locker room is absolute insanity! WHAT is wrong with these people?!? They've lost all common sense!!!

IF we somehow have a problem with boys suddenly wanting to be girls, then give them their OWN dressing rooms. Don't put them into the girls locker room!!!

cslamer Rebel Yell • 3 hours ago

that will ONLY happen after a few under age girls get raped by these trannies.... and even then it will be a fight!

daro 1 • 4 hours ago

perhaps they should be required to use the teachers' bathroom.

Frank N. Stein • 15 hours ago

Here's an idea for equal access:

Biological girls only from 7:30 AM to 7:30 PM.

Trannies only from 7:30 PM to 7:30 AM.

Independent Patriot Frank N. Stein • 15 hours ago

Won't work. The leftist lunatics would deny that there's such a thing as "time". "AM" and "PM" would quickly be deemed the white mans "racist" way of controlling minorities. All clocks in the public square and universities would be pulled down by angry mobs. And everyone would be told that the time is what you want it to be. Time stops, chaos ensues, and the world comes to an end. All because leftist lunatics don't know what bathroom to use.

Proving once again that ya just can't fix crazy...

LOL!

I can just see that happening, too!

Someday there will be a comeuppance that the elites will have to suffer through for all of their evil deeds and whether or not they survive it is yet to be seen.

This BS is bad but their stance on killing human babies inside and now outside the womb so that they can be cut up for profit in satans butcher shops at planned murderhood should have been the final straw for them but instead in the bizzaro world of the USA they were praised and elevated for their purely evil stand.

Our country is done unless there is a purge of epic proportions.... and soon.

We all need to stop responding to symptoms, and address the causes. Everybody needs to understand what Postmodernism is and what it's doing to our country/culture/society. Once you get it, you won't have any problem identifying the signs of it and attacking the problem at the source.

Postmodernism is a social disease, and like any disease, the most effective method to deal with it is prevention, not treatment. You don't reduce the number of people who get lung cancer from smoking by suggesting they switch brands, you get them to quit smoking.

Here's a fantastic source to understand what Postmodernism is written by Prof. Stephen Hicks, one of the brightest scholars we have these days, and it can be downloaded free in .pdf format:

<http://www.stephenhicks.org...>

If you read and comprehend this book you will never again be made a fool of by Neomarxists, at least not unwillingly.

How about when a student doesn't want to be seen by anyone including a person of the same sex. That individual should be exempted from Gym class regardless of mandatory PE and should be allowed to make up the credit by an extra study hall or an online school that is free of charge.

Of course the best thing is to drop out of Pervert High and join the moral team at Freedom Project Academy. <https://www.fpeusa.org/>

Good point. I agree. A student should have the option of being assigned an alternate class
